

Narrating & Dialogue Practise

This is your Indonesian character.

Task 1. Introduce your character, give them a name. Describe where you come from, live, your family, your favourite food and activities, what you do on your spare time, where you work/your profession.

Do you know how to ask these question?

- Where someone comes from
- Where they live
- If someone likes certain food
- If someone has tried certain food
- If someone likes a certain activity
- If someone has tried a certain activity
- If someone's been to a place.

Vocab: Introduction greetings, paling suka, kesukaan, di waktu luang, kerja sebagai.

Your character's alarm didn't go off one morning and they woke up late.

Task 2. Write an internal monologue of your character panicking. Include some exclamation phrases/expressions. Your character still need to shower and make themselves decent. They are late for work and need to notify their boss that they will not be able to attend the early meeting at the office. Write a telephone conversation between your character and their boss. In that conversation, your character makes up an excuse, a little lie, for their belatedness and their boss' reaction.

Interesting phrasing:

Mana belum mandi lagi - (+-) I haven't even taken a shower.

On the way to the office

Task 3. Describe the journey, distance and time it takes to get to the office.

Vocab: Perjalanan, lalu lintas, jaraknya, lamanya, lewat.

At the office

Your character made it to the office. Because you are an integral part of the project, the meeting was postponed until you arrive.

Task 3. Write a dialogue of the meeting of this scenario: Your character's boss wants the project to be completed by the end of the month. But your character knows this isn't possible without compromising the quality of the product. Your character is arguing and convincing the team that for the best result the project must not be rushed and meticulously executed as well as that the product needs to be appealing for the endusers/costumers.

Vocab: Mungkin, mutu/kualitas, produk, hasil akhir, proyek, diburu-buru, teliti, dilaksanakan, menarik, mudah dipakai, enak dilihat, elok di mata, konsumen, pemakai.

Interesting phrasing: Create adverbs using dengan
